

Royal College of Midwives

The UK's only professional association and trade union dedicated to midwifery
An exciting opportunity to join Team RCM on secondment:

Post:	Workplace Representative (secondment), South
Contract:	Full time (35 hours/week) Secondment for six to twelve months ideally from end of June/early July 2026.
Location:	Homebased within a reasonable travel distance of their allocated geographical patch.
Salary:	We will match full time equivalent salary up to £57,067p.a. including London Weighting and without other enhancements.

The Royal College of Midwives (RCM) is by the side of midwives, student midwives, maternity support workers and maternity care assistants, every day throughout their careers. We have an exciting opportunity for an RCM workplace representative to join us in the South team for six to twelve months. The RCM Workplace Representative, South will provide employment relations support and services to our members in the South. The role holder will work closely alongside the Regional Head, London and south and RCM south team.

If you have experience of working as a midwife or as an MSW/MCA and experience as an RCM workplace representative, we would love to hear from you. Your RCM reward package will include:

- Flexible working opportunity.
- Home office set-up.
- A 24/7 employee assistance programme (EAP) and corporate discounts.

The RCM is an equal opportunities employer. We welcome and encourage applications from all sections of the community. All disabled applicants meeting the criteria will be invited to interview. To apply, please complete an application and send it to HR@rcm.org.uk. We would like this role to start at the end of June/early July, applicants must have agreement in principle from their current employer for the secondment before applying.

Closing date: Sunday 14 June 2026

In person interview date in London: Tuesday 23 June 2026

